When Alderman Waters died in Michigan the other day, he left a will which furnishes a corollary to the poet's words about love. There are three women who are saying that it is better to have been loved and lost than never to have been loved at all. The Alderman left three legacies of $10,000 each for as many of his old sweethearts whom he had assiduously courted but never won. He remained a bachelor, and became rich, but apparently never lost his loverlike feeling for the only girl, except two, he ever loved.

In a speech at Barboursville Congressman Hunter stated that he had given bed and board for two years to John L. Powers, a brother of Caleb M. Powers, who was indicted for complicity in the murder of Goebel. Therepublicans will no doubt return Mr. Hunter to Congress for the reason that he has helped harbor a fugitive. 'Tis quite a feather in the Gum Shoe Statesman's hat, many partisan members of that party think.

A GREAT admirer and supporter of Mr. Bryan committed suicide in New York because, as he told his friends there was no use living now that the Nebraska was out of the question as a presidential nominee. Poor fellow! he might have saved himself for greater sorrow.

POLITICAL.

Q. C. Godbey, of Liberty, is a prospective candidate for county judge of Casey.

Max Ihmsen, W. R. Hearst's representative, is in Louisville again; this time to buy a newspaper, it is said.

John W. Bookwalter, the Springfield millionaire manufacturer-politician, says Ohio democrats will instruct for Hearst.

In the primary held at New Haven, Conn., the home of Yale College, the Hearst delegates carried the city by an overwhelming majority.

No dear reader, the Taylor instructed for for governor of Indiana is W. L., not W. S. Means as are the Hoosier republicans, they couldn't stomach such a brute as the fugitive assassin conspirator—Lexington Democrat.

Former Chief of Police William A. Jesse was appointed chief of the Lexington Fire Department to succeed G. W. Muir. The latter immediately fled suit against the mayor and city council enjoining them from removing him.

A harmony program has been mapped out by Louisville republicans, the scheme being to nominate former Gov. W. O. Bradley for Congress and to divide the other honors. The Custom house faction is said to be willing, but Charles E. Sapp has not expressed himself.

Senator Morgan says that the Parker boom means that Hearst and Bryan will not play an important part in the democratic national convention. Personally the Senator prefers Gorman as the nominee, but he believes that Judge Parker can bring to his support the democratic vote necessary to an election.

To The Democracy of Lincoln County:

Because it is the more convenient method, I take the liberty to respond publicly to many inquiries made of me respecting my purpose to become a candidate for the democratic nomination for attorney of Lincoln county. I have not made any formal announcement of candidacy and do not propose to do so now. The election will not occur until November, 1905. At this time we are on the threshold of the most important presidential contest which will have occurred in more than a half century. Besides this a Congressional and Appellate Judgeship race are pending. Party nominations involve chiefly personal preference. These, it seems to me, should be held in abeyance until we can bring to a flesh our political differences with our political opponents; encouraging meanwhile party unity and discouraging personal differences with a view to party success.

I do not conceal my present purpose to become a candidate at a fit time. After the November election is over and after I shall have contributed the full measure of my small ability to the success of the regular nominees of my party, I will endeavor to attend to my personal interests with respect to a party nomination for the office of county attorney of Lincoln county. Let an attitude of more complete silence should be misconstrued by those who have such sufficient interest to ask me of my purpose, I think it proper to make public this response.

Respectfully,
W. S. BURCH.

HERE AND THERE.

Dr. Frederick Hinit has arrived at Danville and will accept the presidency of Central University.

At Middleboro Sarah Greer in, a fit of jealousy, shot at Mrs. Laps Galloway but struck Mrs. Ed McWilliams, an innocent person.

The Bluegrass Oil Co. has brought in another good oil well in the Knox field. It is located on the Barnes farm and is a regular Jones sand well at 450 feet.

William Parker, claiming to be from Louisville, was fatally shot by an officer in Wheeling, W. Va., while in the act of breaking into a saloon for the purpose of robbery.

Hugh Mulholland, formerly postmaster of Paducah, is under arrest in Brooklyn, N. Y., charged with complicity in stealing $50 worth of trading stamps from a trading stamp company. He told such a hard luck story of drink being his downfall that the judge took his case under advisement.

All the wills of the late Cassius M. Clay were declared null and void by Judge Benton at Richmond on the ground that the testator was of unsound mind at the time they were drawn. The property will go to the natural heirs. Dora Brock, the child wife, will appeal from the decision.

Twenty-nine men were killed, five of whom were officers in the navy, by the explosion of powder in a turret of the battleship Missouri while the vessel was engaged in target practice off the Florida coast. Five men were injured, two of whom will die. The accident was due to the ignition of powder in the breach of a 12-inch gun, and resulted in the explosion of 2,000 pounds. The vessel was saved from destruction by Capt. Cowles, who ordered the magazine flooded.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Baptist church at Owenton has called Rev. B. F. Swindler, of Covington, to its pastorate.

Mrs. Edward King, of New York, has given $100,000 for the erection of a new Episcopal chapel on Cathedral Heights.

Servants at the Baptist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject: "The Transfiguration of Christ." Evening services at 7:30. Subject: "The Tried the Best." Everybody invited.

Rev. P. J. Ross will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. The Methodist church is undergoing repairs. Sunday School will also be held in the Presbyterian church.

Serious Stomach Trouble Cured.

I was troubled with a distress in my stomach, sour stomach and vomiting spells, and can truthfully say that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me.—Mrs. T. V. Williams, Laingsburg, Mich. These tablets are guaranteed to cure every case of stomach trouble of this character. For sale by W. N. Craig

PREACHERSVILLE.

D. F. Thompson has a cow that gives two gallons of milk each milking, besides enough for a hearty calf. Whose cow can beat that?

James D. Anderson, the polite candidate for assessor, was with our people the other day and it is safe to say that he added many new friends to his already long list.

Mrs. J. M. Cress is a practical poultry raiser and makes more from the sale of fine Leghorns than most any one. Those desiring eggs for hatching will do well to call on her.

Cecil McClary and Mr. Chestnut, of Rockcastle, were with friends here Sunday. They taught school in this county last year and are thinking of teaching in Lincoln again.

Building wire fences is the order of the day in this section. We predict that in 50 years from now a wooden fence will be as great a curiosity as a spinning wheel is now to most people.

Mrs. Victoria Anderson, the aged mother of James L. Anderson, of this place, is seriously ill at her home near here. W. H. Cummins has been quite sick, but is able to be out again. J. F. Payne is some better of grip.

Rev. Robert Jordan, pastor of the M. E. church, preached Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening. He is with the Cartersville church this week holding quarterly meeting. Rev. J. S. Ragan with others, will conduct the prayer meeting in his absence.

The trial of James M. A. Watson in Washington, charged with embezzling $73,000 of Government funds, was brought suddenly to a close and Juror Arthur Orrison was sentenced to two months in jail for contempt of court.

DORSEY GOLDDUST 12052.

FULL BROTHER TO ESTELLE 2:19 1-4

Sired by Zucadi Goddard 4:00—by Goldust 1:50, and he by Vermont Morgan, (Dorsey Goldust's grand dam on sire's side was by the Imp. Arabian Stallion Zucadi). His dam is Florence, by Golden Mingo Chief, a son of Gaff's Morgan, making him intensely inbred Morgan Stallion, descending from Justen Morgan on both sides. The best family of road horses ever known.

Dorsey Goldust is a dark dappled bay, full 16 hands and weighs 1200 pounds; a proven and uniform breeder of high-class road and eastern horses, combining all the qualities for saddle and harness, and winning at top prices. Both the champion saddle and combined gelding of the American Horse Shows of 1902-3. Jack O. Diamonds stands to his credit 20 of his colts last year for $1,000 and $1,500 was refused for a walk-trot mare by him. His services are offered for less than any horse of his producing qualities in Kentucky. Will stand at my farm near Stanford.

$20 TO INSURE A COLT

French Coach Stallion.

QUASI NO. 2127.

In French Coach Stud Books of America, also in Republique Francaise Haras Nationaux No. 1269, and he by Vermont Morgan, (Dorsey Goldust's grand dam on sire's side was by the Imp. Arabian Stallion Zucadi). His dam is Florence, by Golden Mingo Chief, a son of Gaff's Morgan, making him intensely inbred Morgan Stallion, descending from Justen Morgan on both sides. The best family of road horses ever known.

Imported by W. H. Tichenor & Co., of Chicago, in 1898. Color bay; black points, small star, 16 1/2 hands high, weighs in working order 1,350 pounds, sired by the French Government Stallion, France, dam Charnant by Le Doré, and dam by Revolution (extended pedigree framed)—Quasi has never been beaten in the show ring. A sure breeder of large, fine, high style and big acting colts and very kind to handle. I invite the attention of breeders to my colts by him to be seen on my farm, so of his get out of all kinds of mares.

Quasi will make the present season of 1904 at my farm, 2 1/2 miles from Stanford on the Hustonville pike at $15 TO INSURE A COLT.

Money due when colt drops or mare parted with by breeder. Mares kept at $60 per week on grass; no responsibility for accidents or escapes. The best of careful handling given and no accidents so far.

Tom Keene, Jr.

Will make the season at same place at $20 to insure a colt. This jack is almost a counterpart of his sire and from his breeding should prove a high class male jack. Old Tom Keene, his sire, had no superior and breeds through his colts. His 1st dam is by Cleaver, and by Giant, 3rd by West End, 4th by Great Western.
